ABOUT MAHA BODHI SOCIETY-BANGALORE

Maha Bodhi Society, Bengaluru was founded in 1956 by the Late Most Venerable Dr. Acharya Buddharakkhita, Abhidhaja Aggamaha Saddhammajotika, D.Litt. The objective of the Society is to put into the practice and teach the most sacred and pragmatic teaching of Lord Buddha.

Since its very inception, the Society has been actively engaged in rendering various spiritual and humanitarian services. By the Blessing of the founder president Most Venerable Dr. Acharya Buddharakkhita, today the Society has expanded its activities in different parts of India and abroad with the message of compassion and universal love. Even in his physical absence the most Venerable Acharya Buddharakkhita Bhanteji is the dynamic force behind all the welfare services of the Society, through what he lived, practiced, taught and gave example. The society has established monasteries for monks and nuns, meditation centers, hospitals, old age homes, educational institutions and published over three hundred Dhamma books benefiting thousands of people around the globe.

Mahabodhi Research Centre (Affiliated to Karnataka Sanskrit University & Jain (Deemed to University)) is the result of far sighted vision, dedicated effort and research by the founder aimed to provide systematic Buddhist Education to modern people as widely as possible. Under the guidance of Most Ven. Acharya Buddharakkhita Bhanteji different Buddhist courses through online and regular mode are offered under Research centre programs.

Most Venerable Dr Acharya Buddharakkhita Mahathera
Founder of Maha Bodhi Society, Bangalore and Sister organizations

Late Venerable Acharya Buddharakkhita who started the Maha Bodhi Society and its sister organizations and who has tendered yeomen service to humanity for 57 years was the founder of this Centre. He was one of the most erudite Buddhist scholars. It was his cherished dream and vision to provide a systematic Buddhist education as widely as possible.

He was a member of the Editorial Board of the Sixth Buddhist synod (Chattha Sangayana) in Yangon, which brought out a complete edition of the Pali Tipitaka. He was teaching Pali and Tipitaka at Nalanda University. He has conducted many Dhamma and Pali courses, meditation courses and written numerous books and translations of Buddhist texts.

He has taught and trained several disciples who are living and teaching in the Mahabodhi Monasteries in different parts of India.
